St. Marys and Campbellsville Wins.

Last Saturday forenoon the Columbia Athletic Club motored to St. Marys and in the afternoon it went into the hands of the fast team of that school. The Columbia aggregation failed to interest their opponents the game closing 62 for St. Marys, 26 for Columbia.

This slaughter did not deter the Athletics and they hurried to Campbellsville where they met the Town team of that city. The playing of our local team showed that it had not recovered from the defeat at St. Marys. The Campbellsville boys took the lead and held it until the contest closed. The figures showed Campbellsville 66, Columbia 22.

Our boys will patiently wait, to see what old Santa Claus brings them.

Better Than Real Estate.

If you buy land you pay five or six percent interest on any balance remaining unpaid. Eventually you have to pay that balance too. By insuring in The Mutual Life of New York, a young man can buy for his family an estate of $1,000 or $100,000, by paying less than three percent yearly—little more than two per cent measured by net cost. He thus, at once, provides a fortune for his family, available at his death, or for himself if he survives the period fixed in his policy. No better scheme of laying hold on fortune was ever devised.

Mopped Up.

The fast Jamestown basket ball team was in Columbia Saturday morning, en route home. The boys were in Campbellsville Friday night, and engaged the team at that place. They report that the contest was exciting, but that they got there all the same. The score was 28 to 22 in favor of Jamestown. This team has made an enviable reputation for fast floor work, and as goal pitchers, they are right at home.

Last Tuesday and Wednesday were busy days with the sheriff and his deputies, collecting taxes. The office was crowded from early in the morning until late in the afternoon, and hundreds of dollars were paid out for county and State taxes.

Fishermen say at this season of the year, if the creek and river are in condition, is the best time to fish with hook and line for bass. But little fishing has been done here during the fall, in fact, but little sporting of any kind.

Killing in Cumberland.

Burton Allen and Talk Taylor were brothers-in-law and they had trouble some time ago. Last Wednesday week they met on the public highway,—Salt Lick Bend settlement. Taylor opened fire on Allen, three balls striking him near the heart, which resulted in death in a few hours. A small boy was riding behind Allen and he was wounded, but not seriously. Taylor was noted for his mixups with the noted Coe family.

You Can't.

You can't insure yourself any more than your house can insure itself. The man who deludes himself that by not taking a policy he is "saving" the money which life insurance would indeed save for him, forgets that his wife and family are running the risk of his death at any moment. Insure now in THE MUTUAL LIFE of New York, and your family will immediately be made safe—it would take years of successful labor and persistent saving for you unaided to make them secure.

It is My Home.

I just want to write you a line,
To tell you about this home of mine,
The pillows are of marble white
Its location is not such a beautiful site,

It may be humble but it is alright.
It is my home.

Yes its humble to you I know,
But to me it doesn't seem quiet so.
The grass to you many not look so green

As that around some home's you have seen.

The yard may be bare but its alright
It is my home.

Out in the yard there blooms a flower,
Now and then if there's a shower.
This tiny flower you would pass by,
Yet I inspect it with all my eye

The flowers may be few but its alright,
It is my home.

My home may be a cabin dear,
If so I live in it without any fear.
Of cold or rain or anything
only happiness can it bring.

A cabin it may be it is alright,
It is my home.

Why be it nature for one to cling to home?

And return to it when we cease to roam,
There is always a shot which is dear to our heart,

And we never forget if we ever depart
No matter how humble it be it is alright.

It is my home.
